this may be obvious but I assume I have the same names that were highlighted on the original list.

I would compare the lot numbers. If they were highlighted, they don't have a water meter. The name of the lot owner may have changed.

Rosemary,

Do you want to sent me part of your list?

Denise Actually has more than me - I'm good with my 50. I had my daughter Tara reduce the information on the list from this morning with the pertinent info (I'm old school and must print to track my actions.) It's only 11 pages printed. I will then highlight the names that are mine and track results. I'm attaching it here if you're interested in using a printed list of the names.
